- For age 65 and older proof of age is required when mailing the application or renewing in person if not on file. (Example: copy of Driver's License or other positive identification).
- Note: Extra Gate Cards - To use a card on their own spouses & dependent children must complete a SWT, if they haven't already done so after 10/9/16. Those 16-17 years old must also have a Hunter Safety Training Certificate on file in office prior to SWT.

(We accept correct cash, checks or money orders made payable to Cherokee Rod & Gun Club)

You may renew in person during regular Office Hours, the first Thursday of each month (Club Meeting Night), from 1:00 to 6:00 PM. Or mail the form to the address shown above. Please note that Members who renew by mail will have their Membership Card returned to them by mail to the address listed on the renewal form.

SPECIAL NOTE:

The Club is setting up an email database for all members. In the future we hope this will help us communicate with all members in a fast and cost efficient manner. Please provide us with your current email address on the space provided on the application page. Your privacy will always be respected.

Are you willing to participate in Club activities related to your Profession or Occupation? From time to time the Club is in need of certain skills outside the range of our normal committee activities. This could include any number of things, from painting & plumbing, to legal, real estate, or other professional skills. If you have such skills you are willing to offer either as a volunteer or for pay, let us know. Please list your Profession, Occupation, or other useful skills in the space provided on the application page and contact an Officer or Director to volunteer.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Please check the Club Website on a regular basis at www.cherokeerodandgunclub.com for Special Announcements or further information on all Club activities. On the website you will find names & contact information for Club Officers & Directors as well as Committee and Shooting Program Coordinators. The Club Calendar provides up to date information on times and schedules for all Club related activities.
